

LONG SUTTON PARISH COUNCIL

Notes of the meeting of the Long Sutton Parish Council
Held on Thursday 24 October 2019 commencing at 7.00 p.m.
At the Former Reform Church, London Road, Long Sutton

Present: With Cllr J Clarey in the Chair there were present: Councillors Mrs R Barber, T Watts, F Heinrich-Tiller, E Adams, M Ladbrook, F Light
01 Members of the Press. 04 Members of the Public. D Cllrs D Wilkinson, D Cllr J Tyrrell, D Cllr A Tenant

OPEN FORUM: D Cllr J Tyrrell advised that there would be a further Speed Watch Training event on 04 November 2019 commencing at 6.00 p.m. There had been 2 prosecutions in the District due to the Speed Watch Scheme. He also encouraged people to nominate people for the SHDC Pride Awards. He advised that he had been advised that S106 Funding could be applied for using s form from SHDC.
Poppy Appeal Coordinator Richard King advised that the Remembrance Parade would take place at 2.15 p.m. on 10 November 2019 followed by a Church Service at 2.30 p.m. A Road closure was in place for the parade. 51 Poppy Boxes had been distributed around the town. He also thanked the Parish Council for the good wishes following his wife's accident adding that it had meant a lot to them and their family.
A member of the Civic Society advised that the new development in Station Road would be called Thompson Close and thanked the Council for their support regarding the matter.

RESPONSE: The Chairman thanked everyone for their comments and information.
The Clerk advised that SHDC had advised her that there would be no S106 funds available for Long Sutton from future developments including Seagate Road and that the S106 Funding had been allocated for education and health and asked why SHDC did not adopt CIL Legislation instead of S106 so that Parishes received the funding directly for developments in their Parish. In addition, asked why Long Sutton had not been allocated funds from a £500,000 budget allocated to Holbeach and Spalding and why Parishes would wish to take a loan from a £500,000 SHDC Funding pot paying interest when they could simply add any funds required on the Parish Precept.
D Cllr J Tyrrell advised that the £500,000 for Holbeach was heritage funding and he was unsure regarding the other matters.
